

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COLUMBIA DIVISION

Andres L. Glenn,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Mr. Pressley, Mr. Burris, and Jasmine Moore,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 3:22-cv-3779-CMC

ORDER

This matter is before the court on Plaintiff's Complaint filed October 31, 2022. ECF No. 1. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02 (B)(2)(d), D.S.C., the matter was referred to United States Magistrate Judge Shiva V. Hodges for pre-trial proceedings. On November 7, 2022, the Magistrate Judge entered a Proper Form Order and Order and Notice, outlining deficiencies in Plaintiff's Complaint and allowing him to attempt to correct such deficiencies by Amended Complaint no later than November 28, 2022. ECF Nos. 5, 6. Plaintiff did not file an Amended Complaint or any response to the Magistrate Judge's orders.

On December 2, 2022, the Magistrate Judge issued a Report and Recommendation ("Report") recommending this matter be dismissed with prejudice for failure to meet pleading requirements necessary to set forth a claim cognizable in federal court and for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. ECF No. 11. The Magistrate Judge advised Plaintiff of the procedures and requirements for filing objections to the Report and the serious consequences if he failed to do so. Plaintiff failed to file objections, and the time to do so has expired.

The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility to make a final determination remains with the court. See Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261 (1976). The court is charged with making a de novo determination of any portion of the Report of the Magistrate Judge to which a specific objection is made. The court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation made by the Magistrate Judge or recommit the matter to the Magistrate Judge with instructions. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b). The court reviews the Report only for clear error in the absence of an objection. See Diamond v. Colonial Life & Accident Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir. 2005) (stating that “in the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.”) (citation omitted).

After a review of the record, the applicable law, and the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, the court finds no clear error, and agrees this matter should be dismissed. Accordingly, the court adopts the Report by reference in this Order, except for the recommendation to dismiss with prejudice. This matter is dismissed without prejudice and without leave to amend, as Plaintiff has been given the opportunity to do so. See Britt v. DeJoy, 45 F.4th 790, 798 (4th Cir. 2022).

IT IS SO ORDERED.
